

Teaching Supply

Your teaching partner
here in China.

Is your time short and you are in a hurry?

Our intensive weekend courses run every month and get you TEFL certified in a weekend! Our weekend course is located in or downtown campus, with classes running on both Saturday and Sunday from 9am-8pm with a lunch break in between.

So whats studied?

Your weekend course is an intensive version of our standard version. With small class sizes (no larger than 5 students) you are tutored, rather than taught, the principles of teaching in China. Your experienced TEFL trainer guides you through your weekend course with continual support and motivation from your fellow students.

Not only will you learn how to prepare and deliver an EFL/ESL lesson, but you will also gain valuable insight into the essential aspects of second language acquisition.

Whats the focus?

Our weekend classes main focus is on classplan preparation, lesson planning and class structures. In such a short time frame we take the most important practical components of TEFL and refine it with in class observation and teaching.

When are where

When are the courses?

We run weekend courses once every month, and any other time if students need more convenient times. With small class sizes (maximum of 5 students) we provide a personal and motivating classroom experience. We run our weekend courses in our Puxi campus, near Jingan Temple.

The weekend course is an intensive program, so is a structured course compromising in-class TEFL training, class observation and teaching.
